INDUSTRIAL STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS

Global Economy

According to the World Bank Report, the global economy is experiencing a revival. Global economic growth was 3.7% in 2017, up from 3.1% in 2016. Furthermore, this growth was broad-based with most economies around the world registering increased growth.

USA

Growth in the world's largest economy has remained strong in the year under review. The US has registered growth of 2.3% in 2017 compared with 1.6% in 2016. Furthermore, according to IMF forecasts, the US economy is expected to strengthen further with growth in 2018 projected to be 2.9% in 2018 and 2.7% in 2019 on the back of increased government spending, significant tax cuts and a growth in private consumption.

Europe

As per the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the European Union (EU) has enjoyed strong growth in 2017 on the back of healthy economic activity across the EU. In 2017, the EU registered growth of 2.8% compared to 1.6% in 2016. Furthermore, the IMF has estimated growth to be a strong 2.6% in 2018.

India

India has experienced a brief economic slowdown in the year under review. After registering strong GDP growth of over 7% for 3 successive years until FY 16-17, the India's GDP slowed to 6.7% in FY 17-18. This can largely be attributed to the lingering impact of demonetization and the temporary disruptions caused by the implementation of the historic Goods and Services Tax (GST).

The year under review has witnessed a number of structural reforms in addition to GST: the resolution of the problems associated with non-performing assets in the banking sector, the recapitalization of national banks, the privatization of coal mines, the emphasis on robust infrastructure development and the improvement in the country's Ease-of-Doing-Business ranking are all expected to provide great impetus to the Indian economy.

The Textile Industry in India

India is the second largest exporter of textiles in the world. The textile sector accounts for 10% of India's industrial production and contributes 2% to the country's GDP. The Indian Textile Industry is currently estimated at USD 120 billion and is expected to grow to USD 230 billion by 2020, according to IBEF. Textiles exports in FY 18 stood at USD 37.7 billion, while the export of synthetic yarns, fabrics and made-ups grew by 2% to 4.8 billion.

Furthermore, the technical textile industry in India is estimated at USD 18 billion in FY 18 and is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 13% in the next 5 years. This is expected to be a key growth market in the coming years.

India enjoys an enviable global advantage due to abundant supply of raw materials, heavy investment in world-class manufacturing, continuous innovation, strategic market expansion and a focus on quality.

OPERATIONS

India has moved to the GST Regime from 1st July, 2017 wherein several taxes were subsumed by GST. The one-time implementation of the GST has led to a downturn in first half of the financial year; however, we have seen domestic demand gain momentum in the second half of the financial year. Keeping in mind the lingering effects of demonetization in the beginning of the current financial year and the downturn in the economy caused by implementation of GST in the month of July 2017, your Company has performed well in the year under review.

The Company's revenue from operations (including other income) stood at Rs. 28685.79 Lakh compared to Rs. 29898.68 Lakh in the previous fiscal. Yarn production stood at 14170 MT compared to 14077 MT in FY17. The operating profit of the company was impacted by a sharp rise in power cost, which increased by 21% from Rs. 2935.09 Lakh to Rs 3542.14 Lakh. Earnings before Depreciation, Interest and Tax (EBDIT) was Rs. 2058.76 lakhs compared to Rs. 2604.49 lakhs in the previous fiscal.

Your company's continuous focus on value added products and cost rationalization along with its versatile product range will yield results in terms of improved profitability. Your company's competitive edge lies in its unrelenting focus on customer-centricity, consistency and product quality. Consequently, the company is evaluating the need to modernise some of its existing spindles, which will result in savings in power, cost efficiencies and increase in capacity, all of which will enable the company to further enhance its competitive advantage. Furthermore, your company is exploring opportunities to expand its capacity in the coming years. This planned expansion will utilise the company's existing land bank.

FINANCE

Your company has been in strong financial health during the year under review. During the year, the Company has made repayments of term loans amounting to Rs. 1307.32 Lakh to banks and financial institution and the Company's bankers have readily provided your company with need-based working capital.

Please note that your company has adopted the Indian Accounting Standard (Ind-AS) from April 1st, 2017.

RISK & RISK MANAGEMENT

The Audit Committee closely monitors all risks that could have a negative effect on the Company. Our Enterprise Risk Management ("ERM") framework encompasses practices relating to the identification, analysis, evaluation, treatment, mitigation and monitoring of the strategic, operational, and legal and compliance risks to achieving our key business objectives. Risks which were reviewed by the Audit Committee are Financial Risk, Compliance Risk, Hazardous Risk, Employee Related Risk, Liquidity Risk, Commodity Risk and Market risk. The focus of risk management is to assess risks and deploy mitigation measures. In accordance with SEBI(Listing Obligations and Disclosures Requirements) Regulation, 2015 (herein after called "Listing Regulations") the Board members were informed of risk assessment and minimization procedures after which the Board formally adopted steps for framing, implementing and monitoring the risk management plan for the Company. In order to achieve the key objective, the policy establishes a structured and disciplined approach to Risk Management, in order to guide decisions on risk related issues.

Your Company is exposed to a number of factors which could potentially have an impact on the Company's operations: cost of raw material prices, cost of power, fluctuation in foreign exchange rate, changes in government regulation and availability of skilled labour, amongst others.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The key structural reforms initiated by the government, the rise in consumerism and disposable income, increasing population and increased ease of access are all major growth drivers for the Indian Textile Industry. The influx of global retail chains and the rapid growth of e-commerce in India are also providing incremental opportunities to local manufacturers.

The company does see some threats in its normal course of business due to increased power cost, unexpected currency fluctuations, sharp changes in prices of key commodities, international trade policies, increasing competition from other global geographies as well as adverse policies in India.

HUMAN RESOURCES AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Human resources are the driving force behind any organization and there is no doubt that the company has consistently achieved its business targets due to the hard work, dedication and diligence of its employees. This year is no exception. The employer - employee relations have continued to remain cordial throughout this year. The management of the Company is convinced that the Company's vision can only be achieved by maintaining a high level of organizational vitality. The Company is committed to leveraging its human resource capital to further enhance its competitiveness in the globally challenging business environment.

In the year under review, your Company has focused on improving human resource efficiencies by adopting new and proven technologies. Therefore, we have witnessed a very positive Industrial Relations Scenario across all manufacturing locations for the Automotive and Farm Equipment Sectors. The employee strength at the end of the financial year was 1671. This includes both skilled and unskilled manpower.

(a) Market Risk: Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises mainly three types of risk; Foreign currency risk, Interest rate risk and other price risk such as Equity price risk and Commodity Price risk.

(b) Foreign Currency Risk: Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from foreign currency transactions of imports, exports and borrowing primarily with respect to USD and Euro. The Company's exports are denominated generally in USD, providing a natural hedge to some extent against foreign currency payments on account of imports of raw materials and/or the payment of borrowings. The foreign currency transaction risk are managed through selective hedging programmes by way of forward contracts including for underlying transactions having firm commitments or highly probable forecast of crystallisation. The Company uses forward exchange contracts to hedge its exposure in foreign currency. The details of foreign currency exposures hedged by derivative instruments and those have not been hedged are as follows:

Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored and assessed. The Company follows the simplified approach for recognition of impairment loss and the same, if any, is provided as per its respective customer's credit risk as on the reporting date
